KIYO TOUCHED AT NITRATE PORTS ON WAY UP

Shortly after 1:30 o'clock this afternoon the T. K. K. freight steamer Kiyo Maru docked at Pier 16, with three cabin passengers, Col. Walter H. Chatfield, 2nd Infantry; Mrs. Chatfield and Ella E. Tunper for this port. They boarded the ship at Balboa, having been on the transport Buford when it was held up by the slides in Culbra Cut.

At 8 o'clock this morning the Kiyo arrived off port, coming here direct from Salina Cruz, Mexico, 16 days from that port. She has on board 1200 tons of nitrates for a local fertilizer company. The Kiyo comes from all the South American nitrate ports. She left Valparaiso October 4, Callao October 7, Antofagasta October 11, Tacatilla October 12, Iquique October 14, Callao October 19, Balboa, Canal Zone, October 26, and Salina Cruz November 2.

Because the ship was much cleaner and more free of rats and mosquitoes than the average boat from South American nitrate ports, Dr. F. E. Trotter, head of the public health service here, gave the Kiyo pratique at 12:30, two and a half hours after fumigation was begun.

Not until Monday will the Kiyo sail for Japan. The postoffice announced this morning that she will take mail for the Orient.

The steamer will carry a few steerage passengers from Honolulu for Japan. She has good-sized steerage accommodations, but only limited first-class space. She will take out a small amount of freight from here for Japan.

DANDRUFF GOES! HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

Save Your Hair! Double Its Beauty in a Few Moments; Try This!

Hair Stops Coming Out and Every Particle of Dandruff Disappears

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair, and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them, its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.—Adv.

"ENGLISHWOMAN" SENDS $2 TO CAVELL FUND

This morning a contribution of $2 was sent to the Star-Bulletin office by someone who wished to remain anonymous, and who asked that the money be accredited to "Englishwoman" and added to the money being sent from Honolulu to London for the fund being raised to erect a monument in memory of Edith Cavell, the English nurse who was executed in Belgium by the Germans. The Star-Bulletin has now agreed to transmit a total of $23, as follows:

"Uncle Sam" $ 2.00
"Australian" 5.00
"Canadian" 1.00
Mrs. E. Hodgson 2.00
"Ireland" 1.00
"Americus" 10.00
"Englishwoman" 2.00

Total $23.00
The Star-Bulletin is not a sponsor for the fund and is merely receiving the money at the request of several patrons of the paper, to be later turned over to a committee.

Rumors continue in San Francisco that the new China Mail Steamship Company, owners of the old Pacific Mail liner China, may charter the Peru for one or two voyages to the Far East.

GRAB GAMBLERS AND BIG OUTFIT IN DARING RAID

"stuff" in Honolulu, and a letter received by the police department later gave more information. The letter, which came to McDuffie several days ago, is interesting.

"I am taking the liberty to write to you a personal letter to see if you would do something to rid this town of a couple of professional gamblers by the names of Spencer and Slat, who have been preying on poor unfortunates who have the gambling craze, such as my husband and his friends.

"The person Slat, I am informed, is an ex-convict from San Quentin, being sent there for robbing a party and then robbing him. He rooms at the Greyhound, room 8, and I am told that he has all his crooked outfit with him, such as marked cards, drills, quicksilver, loaded dice, etc.

"One of the places they usually take their prey to is room 10, New Allandale hotel, on Union street. The room is at the end of the hallway.

"Kindly break up this clique; it may be the means of saving a home. It will do me good if you catch my husband with the bunch; it may learn him a lesson.

"A FRIEND."

"Slat" is thought to mean Johnson, and "Spencer" is probably Watson. Saw Soldiers' Loss Money.

Facts relating to the games in room 10 were communicated to McDuffie previous to the receipt of the letter, and one man reported that on the night of November 9 he watched the game in room 10 through a transom until 4 o'clock in the morning, a number of soldiers being engaged in play and most of them losing all they had.

When Detectives McDuffie, Swift, Kellett, Silva, Anderson and Capt. Baker of the police broke into room 10 at 11 o'clock last night they found eight men around the table. Rubber chips on the table represented 25 cents, $1 and $5 each, the total value of chips in the game being $485, while $40 in cash was taken. A dozen or more decks of cards were on hand.

When Johnson was searched he gave the tip himself that led to the seizure of the rest of his outfit, when he said to one of the detectives, "I know what you are looking for. You are looking for a couple of coins with quicksilver on them."

Find Took for Crooks.

The reference to quicksilver led to the conclusion that Johnson was the man who was loading dice, and his room at the Graystone Hotel, corner King and Nuuanu streets, was searched. In the room was found every conceivable necessity for crooked gambling.

Johnson had a dentist's drill stand and a set of drills for boring dice, two automatic revolvers, hand drills, blank dice, and a dozen pairs of loaded dice. He is expert enough to load even transparent celluloid dice, which he does by boring the marks on the faces deeper and putting cement and quicksilver in.

This morning Johnson admitted that he had been engaged in opium smuggling, and claimed he lost $30,000 through miscarriage of a smuggling scheme last year. He says he has five bullet wounds in his body and claims that in San Francisco he was licensed to carry a revolver. He has plenty of money.

"Oh, they'll fine me $100, or maybe $500, and let me go," he said this morning. "That will pay them for their trouble and I will get out of town. I'm willing to leave. The town is too small for my kind of game."

Johnson was recognized by Policeman Carter as having formerly made a practise of running on transports,
